The DEBUT has come and gone - And Aimee and Tracy are still Standing!!!

The King George Chapter of the American Wine Society was treated to Aimee and Tracy's first wine career presentation and it was a gem. to 34 members and 1 explained the origins to California, New Their theme, "What chance to determine difference- while with strawberries,

They presented 3 sets of 2 Pinot Noirs from different regions of the world guest on November 8. Their presentation, which can be found here, and other facts about the grape and climate conditions. As they traveled Zealand and France, the wine characteristics of the region were outlined. Matter's More with your Pinot Noir; Price or Palate", gave the tasters a which wine was the more expensive one- with about a $10 price point enjoying the offerings. Smoked cheese, cheddar, honey goat cheese along ham and turkey rolls as well as meatballs, accompanied the wine. While this author was unable to attend, there was excitement shared about the evening to capture some points of the tasting.

Congratulations on a grand accomplishment. Results of the tasting:
