Our King George Wine Chapter President was so excited to be back in the Legion which was fully renovated for our in person tasting Friday September 13th. Along with her mom, who was celebrating a significant birthday, were Jeff, her brother, Wally, her mom's husband, Arianne, the Green's daughter, and Cindy Hodges guest of the Gibson's. Additionally, the Sutters were back, and 21 other members gathered for a night filled with wine from LangeTwins located in Acampo, California.

The Gibsons tagged teamed the presentation sharing some history on the emergence of the winery, involvement of the various generations of family members, and the wonderful tour they received while visiting this past June. Denise highlighted the many benefits of being a wine club member promoting such details as gifts received even showing some of the environmentally friendly items. Jerry spoke to the wine technicalities citing vineyard locations, differences in soil components as well as sharing aromas he picked up. LangeTwins is noted for the certified sustainable practices which were briefly touched upon. Food pairings were offered having received assistance from winery personnel Adam from the tasting room. Single vineyard wines were selected, made from grapes a little less well known. The feedback was extremely favorable with many particularly enjoying the Aglianico Rosé and the Petite Sirah. Check out the winery at www.langetwins.com to learn more about their product lines and what it takes to make certified sustainable wines in Lodi.

Terri relayed that we have the National Tasting planned for the October meeting presented by the Allans and November will be more Virginia Wines by Paul Koepfinger. Our annual holiday party should be a go. More on that later.
