Wow, another year has passed and our group celebrated in fashion with bubbly, white and red wines to be enjoyed with delicious food from lasagna to woodland beef, from freshly shucked oysters to deep fried oysters. Appetizers of rabbit food, quite yummy in fact, to cheese dishes immersed with hot flavors or macaroni to slices of bread, some topped with gooey delights to an abundance of items for our sweet tooth. And that is probably not all that was there. Lots of good conversation and friendly faces. It was great to see the Moores back from the North and the Mims who had taken a slight sabbatical. And then of course the Adkins our furthest travelers to our tastings. Many others attended, some to receive their bribe gift especially selected by our chapter chair. Those who agreed to help fill up next year's presentation list received a nice personalized gift from Terri, a result of her sneaky way to fill out the schedule. Thanks to the Hydes for opening their home to the chapter for a great way to end the year with an in person holiday party. Here are some other pics - lots of wine could be sipped.

To date the 2022 schedule is as follows:

Date	Presenter	Topic	Food Preparer
14-Jan	Brian Jones	Sicilian Wines
11-Feb	Mims
11-Mar	Burckell
8-Apr	Todd	East/West Coast
10-Jun	Denise Gibson	Aromas
TBD	Niznik

Lots of room for others to add their name. Also, while it is early, think about helping to prepare food.

Perhaps someone is available to serve as Newsletter pro tem for the January meeting. Please let Denise know if you can fill in for her.

Have a great holiday season and see you next year at the American Legion.
